Dear Greg Denny,

What you ask of me is, I regret, a physical impossibility.

You ask for copies of a quarter of a million pages of the official records I got from all those FOIA lawsuits I filed against the government.

Moreover, they are in our basement and I am no longer able to use stairs.

So I cannot even get to them.

I do have copies of all my books and they are, except for those who come here and are welcome to use those files, all I can now do about making that information available.

My current NEVER AGAIN! is in most book stores. If not they can get it from their usual supplier.

Best wishes,
